

Dear Emily,

Right at this moment I am presently touring a place called Easter Island! I chose to tour the huge human statues.

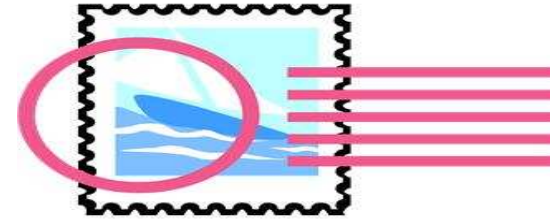

Did you know that there are over six hundred statues? That are as high as thirteen metres! That's high isn't it? Wow! They are also over twenty seven tonnes! That must be very heavy. I wonder what they put messages on the tablets. Can you believe that they can't translate the words? Well, I must get going. We are going to go see some more huge statues.

See you soon,

Katerina Ferreira

P.S Wish you were here! Just kidding!

P.P.S Are you jealous yet?
